DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

A broad range or limitation together with a narrow range or limitation that falls within the broad range or limitation (in the same claim) is considered indefinite, since the resulting claim does not clearly set forth the metes and bounds of the patent protection desired. See MPEP § 2173.05(c). Note the explanation given by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences in Ex parte Wu, 10 USPQ2d 2031, 2033 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1989), as to where broad language is followed by "such as" and then narrow language. The Board stated that this can render a claim indefinite by raising a question or doubt as to whether the feature introduced by such language is (a) merely exemplary of the remainder of the claim, and therefore not required, or (b) a required feature of the claims. Note also, for example, the decisions of Ex parte Steigewald, 131 USPQ 74 (Bd. App. 1961); Ex parte Hall, 83 USPQ 38 (Bd. App. 1948); and Ex parte Hasche, 86 USPQ 481 (Bd. App. 1949). In the present instance, claim 1 recites the broad recitation "an end of a strap" (line 1), and the claim also recites "particularly a bracelet, to an object, particularly a watch case" (lines 1-2) which is the narrower statement of the range/limitation.

The following terms lack clear antecedent basis and render the claims indefinite: "it" (claim 1, lines 3, 17; claim 2, line 4; claim 3, line 2; claim 7, line 2); "the wall" (claim 1, line 4);

“the object” (claim 1, lines 3, 5); “the inner ends” (claim 1, line 9); “their respective surfaces” (claim 1, line 9); “the end of a portion” (claim 1, line 10); “the axis” (claim 1, line 12); “of cam” (claim 1, line 15); “The fastening device” (claim 2, line 1) should match the other depending claims; “the pressed down portion” (claim 4, lines 4-5); “the side” (claim 5, line 2; claim 9, line 2; claim 10, line 2; claim 11, line 2); “said first portion” (claim 4, line 2; claim 8, line 2); and “the adjacent faces” (claim 6, line 2; claim 12, line 1; claim 13, line 1; claim 14, line 1; claim 15, line 1; claim 16, line 1).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-16 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The patents of JP 2000-298179 and Grohoski et al. (US 4217681) teach pertinent fastener structure.
